

Nicole Stranix
Week 6 – Elevator Speech
10/21/2017

I am working on a Science unit project for my second graders. The students will be learning about the Earth's layers and its features. Then they will explore how erosion and weathering change the shape our land. Finally, they will investigate and design solutions to how these processes affect people.